The State of IT

2016 AITP Technology Leaders Forum

Topic

Four of our regional IT leaders will be discussing key initiatives and challenges that will impact Information Technology in 2016, and what decisions are needed to fulfill these obligations. This open forum will help IT professionals, faculty, college students, and job seekers gain a better understanding the State of IT for 2016. Our panel this year consists of CIOs/IT Leaders representing banking, healthcare, government, and security sectors.

Time will be reserved for the Q&A session.
