Target's data breach, the "Heartbleed" bug, hacktivism, social media data mining, and a shortage of cybersecurity professionals, are just some of the cybersecurity challenges that directly and indirectly impact all of us. How do we minimize the exposure to such risks? For this open forum, our panel of experts will provide insights on how to minimize the risks and provide possible solutions to your questions.

Our panel consists of security experts in the fields of privacy protection, cloud services, healthcare information, computer forensics, IT legal, banking, and cybersecurity education:

- Frank Ahearn, privacy expert and author, "How To Disappear"
- Brad Carvellas, Information Security Officer, Andesa Services
- David Finkelstein: Information Security Manager, St. Luke's University Health Network
- Lance Hawk: owner, Computer Forensics and IT Security Solutions, LLC
- Douglas Panzer Esq.: Attorney, Law Office of Douglas Panzer, Technology & Intellectual Property Law
- Walt Sahaydak: IT Security Specialist, Utility Employees Credit Union
- Dr. Yong Zhang: Associate Professor of Computer Science, Kutztown University

For those who do not wish to attend the dinner networking social, you are still welcome to join us at no cost for the open forum starting at 7:30 PM.

Directions to Kutztown University: Please click on the campus map (South Campus, South Dining Hall, and Bldg. #45) and directions for details. Parking is available in lot D2, D3 and D4. The meeting will be held in the Viewpoints Dining Room of the South Dining Hall (SDH)

Reservations: Please email Thiep Pham at Thiep.Pham@MilestoneTS.com or Tom Emmerth at temmerth@compuserve.com. Let us know if you are planning to attend AND if you are planning to join us for the networking dinner so the proper number of meals can be prepared in advance.

Schedule:

5:30-6:30 Networking
6:30-7:30 Dinner
7:30-8:30 Open forum
8:30 -- Adjournment

Refreshments:

For those who will be attending the dinner networking social. Dinner cost is $15 for AITP members, $25 for non-members, and $10 for students ($5 for KTA/AITP students). It is very important for us to get an accurate headcount to ensure enough food is being prepared. Please respond to the reservations notice prior to Saturday, September 13th. Thank you!
